Re: Case 1:21-cv-01540 Wilmington Trust, N.A., v. Segal.

Dear Judge Merkl,

In compliance with the Court’s directive on August 11, 2023, counsel for Wilmington Trust, N.A. (“Securities Intermediary”) hereby files this status report advising the Court as to the status of the case and proposed next steps. As the Court is aware, John Hancock issued a partial payment on the death claim for the policies at issue, but has not remitted the full death benefits given its stated concern relating to the birthdate listed on the policy applications. As of today, $2,943,168, plus interest, is still owed on the two policies at issue.

As discussed previously, Wilmington Trust took the deposition of Herman Segal on June 12, 2023. Notably, Mr. Segal did not bring any of the documents requested, claiming he had none. Mr. Segal also refused to provide information as to the individual who Mr. Segal claims could be in possession of some of the documents requested and refused to discuss his conversations with individuals at John Hancock. In conversation after his deposition, Mr. Segal insisted that he was truthful during his deposition and that he has no responsive documents to produce.¹

As discussed previously, Wilmington Trust has conducted additional investigation and was able to locate the following ancient documents:

1. Petition for Naturalization, dated Feb. 5, 1948 (signed by Lenka Segal)
2. United States Naturalization Index Card, dated Feb. 23, 1954 (signed by Lenka Segal)
3. Certificate of Naturalization (1954)

¹ However, Mr. Segal stated during the status conference that there are certain documents he does not intend to produce because of a “Fifth Amendment issue” claiming that there are “legal and practical justification[s] why those documents may not be available for production.” Jun. 12, 2023 Hr’g Tr., attached as Exhibit A, at 11:5-10; 13:20-24 (“unfortunately, we’re talking here about potential criminal possibilities” to Mr. Segal).

4. United States Department of Justice Marine Passenger Manifest, dated Jan. 22, 1948 (indicating Lilly Segal was 21 years old at the time)
5. Registration of German Persecutees (from 1948)
6. Certificate of Marriage (from 1953)

Each of these documents clearly demonstrates Lilly Segal was born on the date listed in the Policy applications.

In addition, Wilmington Trust served a Subpoena for documents on John Hancock in order to gather the documentation in its possession and the communications with Herman Segal (about which Mr. Segal refused to comment during his deposition). John Hancock, through counsel, requested an extension, which Wilmington Trust agreed to. John Hancock has now indicated it is ready to make its production, but requires a confidentiality agreement and/or order to protect certain sensitive personal data or medical information contained within its production. John Hancock and Wilmington Trust have signed a confidentiality agreement that is consistent with Your Honor's standing Confidentiality Order, see Exhibit B, and Wilmington Trust intends to request entry of an order consistent with their agreement from the Court. John Hancock's counsel has indicated that its production is forthcoming shortly.

Wilmington Trust will again confer with John Hancock to try to persuade John Hancock to resolve this matter considering the new evidence confirming the accuracy the date of birth for Ms. Segal disclosed in the policy applications. To the extent John Hancock refuses payment despite this evidence, Wilmington Trust will file a motion for summary judgment with the Court regarding the issue of Lilly Segal's age and, if necessary, join and/or depose John Hancock in this action.

Importantly, Wilmington Trust's intent continues to be to bring this matter to closure as expeditiously as possible. Thank you.

Sincerely,

HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP
